This is in response to Papers filed on 17 January 2006.

I. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

(1) The double patenting rejections on the record are overcome by the Terminal Disclaimer filed on 17 January 2006.

(2) There is no convincing evidence as requested and set forth on the record for a proper examination with respect to:

It is first of all. It must determine the scope of the instantly filed application and its claims then excluded them and/or the like from those in the application Serial No. 10/351,188, now Patent No. 6,974,661 on the record.

Secondly, the inventions in the applications are not substantially identical in scope of the claimed limitations as required by law. Applicant and/or the counsel for Hewlett-Packard Company would have a chance to convincingly provide an issue with respect the scope of each of the embodiments in the claims being identical, obvious and non-obvious. What is each of the obvious, non-obvious and distinct embodiments being filed in the instant application and its claims from each of those in application Serial No. 10/351,188, now Patent No. 6,874,661 and its claims to an authority.

Art Unit: 1752

However, applicant with the support of his counsel state on and for the record that there is a Declaration under Rule 132 on the record filed on 06 September 2005 that the embodiments in the application and its claims are solely discovered by and derived from the applicant only. Accordingly, in the absence of an evidence to the contrary, the rejection under 102(e) is withdrawn.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

II. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Hoa V. Le whose telephone number is 571-272-1332.

The examiner can normally be reached from 6:30 AM to 4:30 PM on Monday through Thursday and about the same time of most Friday.
